FUNCTIONS OF FITCPAC

1. Carry out all regulations, instructions, and directives from higher authority pertaining to the administration of FITCPAC and issue internal instructions, regulations, orders, and notices as required for the efficient organization and administration of the Command in support of the mission assigned.
2. Provide basic, technical, and professional development courses in intelligence, amphibious intelligence training, operational intelligence, intelligence systems, intelligence architecture, and Battle Group and Amphibious Task Group workup to the Marine Corps, U.S. Army, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Coast Guard, international students under the Military Assistance Program and Foreign Military Sales, and selected civilian personnel of Department of Defense (DOD) and non-DOD activities.
3. Ensure that the training of all personnel enrolled in the schools and courses established by CNET is in consonance with the Instructional Systems Development as explained in publications from higher authority.
4. Ensure successful and uniform accomplishment of training in accordance with prescribed course material on a standardized basis and ensure high standards of qualification in the individual instructor and student. Carry out, on a continuing basis, an evaluation of instruction and the complete learning situation. Ensure that applicable portions of Personnel Qualification Standards are accomplished in the course of instruction.
5. Provide technical advice and recommendations to CNET in matters concerning assigned training and effect liaison in direct support of specific projects directed by CNET.
6. In support of Navy policy emphasizing the importance of military and motivational training and in recognition of the effect such training has on retention, upgrading professionalism and improving the perception of the Navy, ensure that the military and motivational aspects of training are given strong emphasis equal to the emphasis afforded the technical areas.
7. Coordinate and initiate actions necessary for the development and maintenance of FITCPAC plant facilities required to support the assigned mission.
